T\N:

Sorry for the innumerable curse language in this chapter, don't blame me, blame the MC and the Loli - indra13

Prologue

“Even after being beaten to this degree are you still have not awaken it yet? You bastard <Divine Power> that is.”

I was beaten up till I became like a tattered dust cloth, and then I weakly collapsed to the ground. To the face of the fallen me, Femina is mercilessly trample it down with her atsuzoko boots. It's an unbearable degree of humiliation. However, for the me right now, I don't even have any energy left to brush it away.

T\N: a thick-soled footwear – indra13

——Right now, it's roughly 3 hours after the beginning of the class. The contrast between me who became tattered and that granny body is that on her body there aren't any single wound attached to her body.

When I want to say “Consider your age”, a black gothic dress is fluttering in front of me. From there, expand a delicate body, and a hair that emitting a dazzlingly charming gold. To that person who no matter how you think about it you can only see her as a ten years old girl, I deeply glare at her.

“Shut u~p.....! Didn’t I already tell you from the start that there aren’t such thing like <Divine Power> on me.”

“Huuuh?! Don’t make me say it again and again, brat. Whether you are a normal person or a <Holder> for me to make such a mistake, there is no such thing, because only with a glance I would already find it out. In your case, it’s just that the <Divine Power> is still sleeping.”

“No way such thing can happen, Babaa. ....In the first place, you fuckta~rd, please be shy a little. Your pants is in full view, you know!”

T\N: a wild legal loli appear – indra13

Inside her skirt, float magnificently a red T-back. Contrary to your childish look, what the heck you wearing on.

However, far from concealing “that”, Femina is instead boldly laughing while showing “it”.

“Hyahyahya. Ho~w is it? You are happy right? It’s my way of treating you, be more gratefull.”

“I won’t feel a~nything from seeing a granny underwear, you know. I won’t feel anything unless it’s from a more spunky of onee-chan, ok?”

“Huuuh?! I will eternally 10 years old, you know. The brat over there, with several decades passed by, “it” will become something that not fit for “it” use, but I’m different. It’s a body of eternal amorousness.”

“.....what a thing to say for someone with an A cup. Ough!?”

Immediately after I muttered that, my visibility is dyed in pitch-black color. And then, simultaneously, my nose is being tickled by a sweet fragrance. My face was wrapped up with Femina skirt.

“Rather than A, it’s B, How many time I must say so you can remember it, huuuh?!”

Just like that the position become horseback riding with both of her small hands strangling my neck.

“Ugh, Ough.....! Die, I’m Dyiiiiing.....!”

I’m serious, it’s not a laughing matter.

While I struggle in pursue of oxygen, Femina strength and fragrance are increasing. I don’t have any power left to even push her aside, my consciousness is gradually begin to fade.

——To die because of being wrapped up by a loli babaa skirt, do you think I will stand such ridiculous way of dead?

However, I have already tapping the Earth many times over (but she’s still not letting me go), at that time.

Suddenly, an earsplitting siren rang inside the academy.

Over that sudden event, Femina body and mine trembling at the same time.

“Huuuh!? What the, this alarm. I heard nothing about this.”

She let out a voice to the extent that make it to unable to be heard by others.

It must be a thing that only ring when an emergency situation is happening. As expected, even for Femina she won't be able to ignore this, I guess. Releasing me, she stand up.

And with a suspicious expression, she looks to the school building.

“Cough, cough. Haa..... Oi you, is it fine for you to be here.....?”

Even though she looks like this, this fella for the time being is working as this Amix Heart headmistress. If any wrong things were to happens, she should temporarily suspend the class, right?

“Dunno. If I wait, eventually someone will come from over there, right? —see, here they are.”

“Headmistre~s! Femina Headmistre~s!!”

From the entrance, A teacher from desk work group wearing a suit came running to us.

He seems to be considerably in a hurry. He is covered in sweat, he holds the document in his hand tightly rolling it crumpled. And then, when he finally arrive in front of us, he put both of his hands on his knee and starting to frantically sorting his breath.

“Haa, Haa.....! Thanks god, I can immediately found you!”

“What the, so this is just a surprise counter strike* drill, huh?”

T/N: Sorry don't know military term for it m(__)m – indra13

“Wrong! It's a full-fledged real act*! ‘A big army of monster is coming to invade our school’ was what the report says!”

T/N: Sorry forgot what it should be, OT said “honban”, which is usually means the “real one”, not a drill – indra13

Femina who made a suspicious-looking expression till now, inquisitively raise her eyebrow's.

“Huuh.....? What's happen to the <State-Operated Knight Corps>? I don't even received any report from them, you know.”

T/N: which one you think cooler, chivalric order or knight corps? – indra13

“Th, that's! Because today is the King Holy Birthday, It's likely that most of the group members are called to the Royal Capital! The response from the base is slow, it's like the base is not functioning at all.

“What the heck!”

Letting out a big breath, she put her hands on her forehead. It's an appearance when someone is really (from the bottom of their heart) astonished.

“It is your bastard birthday, but if it became the Country Death anniversary, I won't held responsible for it, ok?..... So? The monster variety, scale, and time it take till their arrival is?”

T/N: If you got confused, Femina is cursing to the king who is not there ^^ – indra13

“It’s confirmed that the one that become its main force is five <Giant (Ogre)>, surrounding that <Giant (Ogre)> is several hundred of <Magic Wolf (Garm)>. It’s likely that the vanguard <Magic Wolf (Garm)> will arrive on the academy eastern gate in 10 more minutes, is what I heard.....!”

T\N: wondering between magic wolf and demon wolf, such dilemma (--) – indra13

“What the, it’s just that many huh?. Because you said that it’s a big army, I thought “ would it be around 10,000 unit?” or something.”

““Wha.....?””

The male teacher and me is harmonized. What the heck are you talking about, Babaa?! A group that consist of several hundred of monster, Isn’t that good enough to be called a big army?! But, I wonder if Femina didn’t feel it as a threat at all, as she put her hand on her mouth and yawned. And then, from the bottom of her heart, she say with casual expression.

“Then, Vlude*. You, go there and annihilates them.”

T\N: Buryuudo. MC, RIP – indra13

“Whaa!?”

What’s with that “Oi, you, go buy me a bread” like feeling? Impossibruuu. In what way is this frickin’ Babaa brain working?

Not only me, even the male staff member is also thought like that. He began to persuade Femina while keeping a low profile as much as possible.

“He, headmistress..... that plan is a little unreasonable as this one expected. He is excellence, be that as it may, a month has not even passed yet since the academies enrollment, so.....”

“Wrong. It’s already one month since he enroll on my <Berserker Faculty>. It’s passable if it’s for something like this.”

She is not joking. I refute as if I’m going to die, literally.

T/N: Another joke lose in translation T_T – indra13

“Don’t you frickin’ kiddin’ with me, Babaa! Before whether it’s passable or not for me to go, Right now, I’m currently being done till I became a tattered dust cloth by you fucker. To fight, with me in this condition, isn’t that the same as to tell me to go to die!”

However, facing that kind of rebuttal, Femina is grabbing my collar and pulled it.

“HUuuH?! Don’t you frickin’ say such a sweet dreamy little things, brat. Do you think they will wait for you (to recover) if you say to them, ‘I’m injured so please wait a bit’? If they are such a reasonable bunch then I won’t make this academy. This is not a game. It’s•kill•or•be•kill. If you understand then stop whining and go, immediately!”

“Khh!”

She let out a dreadful kick using her small knee. I was stifled by the shock. The gastric juice inside flows backwards, I vomit immediately as I sit down.

“He, headmistress! Please collect yourself! If he fails, the damage won’t only befall to him but also to the other students, you know!?”

“.....HUuuh?!”

She replying with a deep, low voice and at the same time Femina’s body is emitting a thirst for blood aura that can froze someone. She walk rudely, drawing closer to the male staff member and then she roughly pulling his necktie.

“What the heck do you bastard know about Vlude? Even though you have never coaching him before, don’t you frickin’ dare to say such thoughtless word. This guy is strong. At least, among his classmate he is outstandingly ahead them.”

And then, as if suddenly being struck with something she is smiling while crooking her lips.

T/N: sorry for the bad words, but just imagine how a person face would make if they are making an evil grinn – indra13

“——Buuut, if you say it to that extent, fine then. Put as many people as you want in the back to be his reinforcement. And then, I will let you guys see. This guy fight. What kind of human this guy is, and what kind of strength hidden in him. Make them, the people who laugh at him, realize ‘I’m all•a•lo•ne, so what?’”

While saying that, she pick the scruff of my neck and lift me up. There is a face of a kid that’s got struck with an idea to make mischievous in front of me.

“You too, stop vomiting, and resolve your resolution already. If you were to get through this, I will give you the Rank of <Kodokuna Kamakiri (Lonely Mantis)>. How’s that? There are some motivations that come out from your heart, right?”

“Cough, cough..... don’t joke with me, first, won’t, have, mean, if, die, YOU KNOW.....!”

N\T: Don’t joke with me, in the first place, there won’t have any meaning for it if I die – indra13

“It’s fine, you won’t die. I guess, it’s a given that you will be driven to the Santzu River. However, before you arrive at the opposite bank, be sure to awaken your <Divine Power>. For argument’s sake, if it’s were not to be like that—You are a person that is just up to that extent, that’s how it is.”

T\N: Nice knowing you MC – indra13

I hear the Beast howling mixed in the siren. The earth is trembling, going up and down with a constant rhythm. It’s apparent that the uninvited guest has come.

Sensing that unusual phenomenon, the students are let out their face from the window. From the school entrance, unknown number of teachers dashed out and scattered in all directions.

“Hurry up. Until you die, I won’t give an order to intercept them. This is by no means a rash decision. If it’s you then it’s possible is what I believe.”

“.....If I were to die, I will drag you bastard to the Santzu River, got it?”

“Hyahyahya. Do as you like. If it’s just for the 49-day I will accompany you on sightseeing the other side.”

“Prattle on, kuso babaa”

—Later on, this incident will become somewhat a legend.

Just by himself, a man who is just enrolled moreover he is a member of the Exceptional Solitude Guild, he annihilated a large army of monster is what it said.

The other students who watch that fight, rather than being astonished by it, they are trembling with fear instead.

The unique <Divine Power> that was awakened due to me in near death situation.

And then, the two scythe that I hold on both of my arm. I brandish those freely, slaughtering the monster again and again like a death god.

When I realize that I’m in the middle of countless number of body, smeared in blood, I laughed intently. Like I’ve gone mad, literally.

—It goes without saying that, this incident resulted in me being further isolated on the academy.
